

Our Counsellors are fully qualified and ready to help you through life's challenges.

We are a not-for-profit community organisation and our counselling service is only partially funded by donations, so fees are normally charged.

However, we do try to make our services as affordable as possible. Therefore our fees include concessions for Healthcare & Senior Cards.

When you call to make a booking for counselling, we will advise you of the fees payable.

Good News Counselling Service

The counsellors are Christians who are professionally qualified and members of professional counselling organisations who are bound by strict confidentiality.

They follow guidelines of the Christian Counselling Association, including professional supervision requirements.

The counsellors will always respect the clients' beliefs and opinions regardless of status, religion or culture.

All counsellors hold a 'Working with Children Check' Certificate from the Department of Justice.
